

Promotion Policy

Employees become eligible for promotion after completing at least 3 years in the company.

The latest performance review rating must be at least 4.5 out of 5.

Mandatory annual training must be completed.

Final promotion approval is given by department management and HR.

Promotion also depends on business requirements and role availability.